

LEWING, James, Am. pathologist; b. Pitts., Dec. 22, 1864; s. Thomas and Julia R. (Wefemeier) E.; A.B., Amherst Coll., 1886, A.M., 1891; Sc.D. 1923; M.D., Columbia Coll. Phys. and Surg., 1891; Sc.D., U. Pitts., 1911, Amherst, 1923, U. Rochester, 1932, Union U., 1938; LL.D., Kenyon, 1931, Western Res. U., 1931; m. Catherine C. Halsted, June 19, 1900; 1 son, James Halsted Tuter Halsted, Coll. Phys. and Surg., 1934; Curt Fellow, 1896-99, Instr. clin. pathology, 1897-98; prof. pathology Cornell U., 1899-1932, prof. oncology, 1922-23; Charles Mickle fellow, Tennessee, 1935; John Scott medalist, Phila., 1937; hon. mem. Phila. Path. Soc., Acad. Med., Brazil, Swedish Roentgen. Soc., Acad. Med., mem. Nat. Acad. Sciences, Assn. Am. Physicians, Roentgen Ray Soc., Am. Med. Museums Soc., Am. Assoc. Pathologists and Bacteriologists, Soc. Exptl. Biology and Medicine, Harvey Soc., Am. Assn. for Cancer Research. Author: Clinical Pathology of Blood, 1900-03, articles on Identity, The Signs of Death, and Sudden Death, in Text-Book of Legal Medicine and Toxicology, 1903; on Blood, etc., in Text-Book of Legal Medicine, 1910; Neoplastic Diseases, 1914-27, 40. Described form of bone sarcoma which usually affects shaft of long bones, classified tumors, experimented with cancer cure using x-ray and radium; pioneer in use of radium treatment. Died N.Y.C., May 16, 1943.